Vienna, May 5. N. S.

ON the 28th paſt, their Imperial Majeſties removed from hence to Laxemberg, where they intend to continue for ſix Weeks. The Emperor has conferred the Government of Mantua upon Prince Philip of Darmſtad. Some Days ago an Expreſs arrived at Court with the Reſolution of the Diet at Augsbourg, by which the Emperor is impower'd, upon certain Conditions, to Conclude, Sigh, and Ratify the Peace at the Congreſs of Baden, in the Name of the whole Empire. Whereupon Count Goes and Count Seilern, were ordered to repair to Baden without any delay, and to Morrow they intend to ſet out accordingly. Monſieur Smeuck is arrived here with a Commiſſion from the King of Pruſſia, but the Contents of it are not yet known. On the 29th paſt, the Counteſs of Oeting-Wallenſtein, Groom of the Stole to the Empreſs, died here in the Fifty Firſt Year of her Age, and moſt of the Nobility aſſiſted at her Funeral, which was performed with great Pomp. Letters from Turky bring an account, that the Bachas in Aſia carried on their Rebellion with great Obſtinacy. The Port had threatned the Poliſh Ambaſſador, to Invade the Kingdom with an Army of 100000 Men, in caſe their Pretenſions were not complied with, notwithſtanding which, the Ambaſſador perſiſted in his demand of having the Treaty of Carlowitz obſerved. The Hoſpodar of Valachia had been arreſted Priſoner with his three Sons, and his Eſtate was confiſcated.

Berlin, May 8. N. S. The King intends very ſoon to go to Brandenburg, Madgeburg, and Halberſtadt, in order to review the Troops which are Quarter'd at thoſe Places. Baron Sparr, a Lieutenant General in the Service of the Moſt Chriſtian King, is lately arrived here, and has had a private Audience of his Majeſty. It is thought he has ſome Propoſals to make from the Court of France, in relation to the War in the North, having paſſed by Hamburgh, where he was ſeveral times in Conference with Count Welling, and Monſieur Triſendorff. Baron Knyphauſen is appointed to reſide at Paris on the Part of his Pruſſian Majeſty, but it is not yet known whether he is to go with the Character of Ambaſſador or Envoy. We have received advice from Poland, that the Turkiſh Commiſſioners were arrived in that Kingdom, in order to regulate the Frontiers with thoſe of the Czar, who were likewiſe expected very ſoon. Great numbers of the Inhabitants of Ukrain had left their Abodes, and put themſelves under the Protection of the Grand Signior, who had promiſed to grant them conſiderable Privileges. The Seraskier was at Chocim, and employed near Thirty thouſand Men in the Fortifications of that Place.

Hamburgh, May 11. N. S. Baron Sparr is arriv'd at Berlin, and hath been ſeveral times in Conference with Monſieur Ilgen, Miniſter of the King of Pruſſia: But we are inform'd, that the Propoſals he hath made hitherto have been rejected, and it is thought his Pruſſian Majeſty will not concern himſelf in the Affairs of the North, nor declare openly in favour of the Houſe of Gottorp, as well upon account of the Engagements he hath enter'd into with the Imperial Court, as alſo becauſe he ſeems very unwilling to proceed to a Rupture with the Czar. The King of Denmark hath deferred his Journey to Holſtein, till his whole Fleet is put to Sea, which it is thought will hardly be before the end of this Month. His Daniſh Majeſty hath received an Expreſs from the Czar, with an account, that he deſigns to enter into Sweden very ſoon with an Army of Fifty four thouſand Men, and that Four thouſand were already gone before, in order to build Bridges over ſeveral Rivers, which he muſt neceſſarily paſs. The Daniſh Miniſters have been very much preſs'd by thoſe of Wolfenbuttel to treat upon the Affairs of Holſtein; but they have return'd anſwer, that they could not enter into any Conference, till after the arrival of all the Plenipotentiaries of their Allies. Several Swediſh Officers, who were taken Priſoners with Count Steinbock, are lately gone from hence to Wiſmar. Two Men of War belonging to the Czar, that were ſailing towards Petersbourg, have been obliged to put into Copenhagen Harbour, not daring to purſue their Voyage, for fear of being taken by a Swediſh Squadron which is now at Sea. It is ſaid, Major General Lieven, who was ſent by the Princeſs and Senate of Sweden to the King at Demotica, hath perſwaded him to leave the Dominions of the Ottoman Port, and we expect every Day to hear of his Majeſty's departure from thence.

Cologne, May 11. N. S. The Electoral Prince of Saxony returned hither on the 8th from Duſſeldorp, and intends to continue at this Place for ſome time. The Troops of this Electorate that were in Winter Quarters at Andernach, Lintz, and other Places on the Rhine, are order'd to be in a readineſs to take poſſeſſion of Rhinberg and Keyſerſwert, as ſoon as they are Evacuated. The Commiſſary General of the Imperial Forces is gone from hence to Saurland, in order to review the Regiments of Dragoons commanded by Prince Eugene and by the late General Felts, which are to march towards the Upper Rhine. The Prince of Holſtein-Beck intends to ſet out very ſoon for Aix la Chapelle. There is to be a Congregation of Prelates held within a few Days in this City, for the Election of a Preſident.

Paris, May 15. N. S. On the 10th the Heart of the Duke of Berry was carried from the Louvre to Val de Grace, and placed among thoſe of the Royal Family by the Biſhop of Seez, his firſt Almoner. To Morrow his Body is to be Interred at St. Denis with great Pomp. The King has declared his Houſhold ſhall be continued, in caſe the Dutcheſs of Berry be delivered of a Son. The Prince of Conti is dangerouſly ill of a Fever, which has lately carried off great numbers of People. Whereupon Monſieur d'Argenſon, Lieutenant General of the Police, has given Orders for viſiting all the
